

Anti-racism: Worship, advocacy and curriculum

Two online workshops support us all as we seek to address racial injustice and asks;

"Why does it matter to us here in Cornwall and what can we do?"

The workshops which are designed for all members of staff, school leaders and governors. The first session will include a presentation from Emily Norman (CEFEL) asking 'Why do we need to include anti-racism in our schools?' Professor Paul Miller (Educational Equity Services) will explore the questions 'Why do we need to do this, why in Cornwall and why now?'

During the second session Aleisha Lewis will look into 'Why should anti-racism be included in the curriculum' and Domini Leong (BAMEED SW) will lead a session on 'Where to make a start'

4 to 7 pm

Session 1 - Tuesday 15th February with Emily Norman and Professor Paul Miller

Session 2 - Wednesday 16th February with Aleishia Lewis and Domini Leong

Online via Zoom - book here

The sessions are free of charge

