

PASTORAL MIDDLE LEADERSHIP PROGRAMME

WHAT IS IT?

The Pastoral Middle Leadership Programme aims to develop high quality pastoral specialists with the ultimate aim of raising student achievement.

The programme consists of six sessions which will provide an insight into the role of pastoral management, examining best practise in key areas of responsibility alongside effective communication with staff, pupils and parents.

WHO IS IT FOR?

The course is designed for those preparing for, or new to middle leadership.

Delegates are required to attend all of the sessions in this programme, as there will be gap tasks between the sessions and a project to complete over the course of the programme.

WHAT IS INVOLVED?

The six workshops will support the pursuit of a practical school-based project as well as help develop an enhanced understanding of intervention methods and the need for collaboration with other school leaders and outside agencies.

- 1. Leading a pastoral team & developing a positive ethos
- 2. Use of tracking and intervention data
- 3. Dealing with incidents & difficult situations effectively
- 4. Effective communication
- 5. Quality assurance of pastoral provision
- 6. Project presentations
