

Governing Body Panels

LEAD | CHALLENGE | IMPROVE

Designated by the National College of Teaching and Leadership, Leicester Teaching School is pleased to be able to offer this valuable opportunity for Governors to work together on improving the quality of Governance in our schools, thereby improving the life chances of our young people.

Features of the programme:

- To provide information and increase understanding about the various types of panels, including the Discipline Panel, the Complaints Panel, the Staff Discipline and Dismissal Panel and the Appeals Panel.
- Raise awareness of the guidance, regulations and policies that govern how panel meetings should be conducted.
- Carry out an audit of your governing body.
- Who should sit on a panel? Risk assess your choices.
- Address the practical issues of setting up and administering panel meetings.

Other workshops for governors are available covering Financial Efficiencies, the Inspection Dashboard, Safeguarding, Forming or Joining a MAT and Disadvantaged Pupils.

Safer Recruitment training is also available, please contact us for further information.
