

Governors and the Curriculum

www.eltsh-tmet.uk

LEAD | CHALLENGE | IMPROVE

The workshop is facilitated by Giles Osborne who is currently a Lead Academy Improvement Partner, Chair of Governors, an ex Executive Headteacher of an all-through school and a National Leader of Governance. He has worked in a range of good and outstanding schools and was formerly an advisor to Kent LEA and a Senior University Lecturer at Brighton, Cambridge and Canterbury Christ Church. Giles is a national trainer for ASP and is currently supporting academy chains on leadership and management, as well as working with a range of alternative provisions. He is also the co-creator of 'TEAM', the National Database for SEMH schools and PRUs, and a national bench marking tool and progress model.

Does your school offer a broad based compliant curriculum?

This workshop will look at the responsibility of Governors to ensure that the school curriculum is balanced and broadly based.

Objectives

- Overview of the curriculum
- How to determine whether the curriculum is balanced and broadly based
- Does the curriculum promote the spiritual, moral, cultural, mental and physical development of pupils at the school and of society; and prepare pupils at the school for the opportunities, responsibilities and experiences of later life?
- How to monitor the curriculum as a governor
