

Leicester History Network

ENGAGE | CHALLENGE | INSPIRE

Leicester Teaching School are pleased to offer this exciting opportunity for Teachers, History Subject Leaders and Curriculum Leaders to come together and share best practice, and learn more about the resources and opportunities on offer for History.

The Leicester History Network is a friendly, experienced and passionate group of History teachers and Subject Leads from across the City and County, committed to working together and sharing ideas and good practice for the benefit of all students. They meet regularly to share resources and debate, challenge and collaborate. Co-ordinated by Ashley Bartlett, colleagues from both primary and secondary schools are welcome.
