General

At Hartbeeps we want to ensure that both you and your child/children receive all the information, guidance and encouragement that you need to experience a truly magical time. We encourage you to listen to Hartbeeps songs at home or when out and about(buy online at www.hartbeeps.com) so your child/children can start to recognise and enjoy the songs we sing in session. Hartbeeps sessions are sometimes held in venues with hard surfaces and, although mats are provided, you may like to bring a small blanket to lay your baby on. The Hartbeeps environment is both relaxed and social, however to show respect for the whole group we ask that general chatter be kept to a minimum, this ensures that the focus is kept on the children. We do try to provide facilities for you to socialise after the session. If your baby becomes restless or needs feeding or changing during the session, please feel free to do so. If young baby sleeps or older baby or toddler simply observes, they are still experiencing the session. The session leader will start on time and we ask that you arrive at least 10 minutes before your session to avoid any disruption during the session. Mobile phones must be either off or on silent. We ask that no food is consumed during the Hartbeeps session, unless for medical reasons.

DEAR GROWN-UP

In order to find your way down the rabbit hole to join your child in their magical world, you should make a conscious transition from the daily constraints of adulthood into their world and set some time aside to partake in their imaginary play. For children, imagination can mean that a set of pots and pans can be an entire orchestra and a bluebell forest a fairy kingdom. Your challenge is to reach out to your child and enter his or her world”.

About Hartbeeps

Since 2003 Hartbeeps has been delivering its unique blend of original music workshops and mini productions to 1000's of babies and young children, challenging accepted definitions of 'baby and toddler' music classes; we create innovative, multi-sensory and highly interactive productions for the very young. By transforming everyday environments into colourful, tactile 'wonderlands' we invite our participants to join us in a world of the imagination. Using clever state of the art music production, original music composition, sound effects, songs and sound plays, lighting effects, innovative props and puppetry together with a vast array of multi-sensory techniques, we create original and highly specialised experiences for our young Hartbeepsers.
