

Virtual Conference – Programme

Saturday 29 June 2024 - 2-5.30pm UK Time

Online webinar via Zoom

Overview

Hear from donors, donor conceived people, recipient parents and professionals at our 2024 Virtual Conference! Our conference in London on 4th May 2024 had some amazing speakers and we're now offering you the opportunity to enjoy some of the highlights from the comfort of your own home at this, our 4th Virtual Conference. The event is a mix of recordings from the day, live presentations, recorded Q&A sessions alongside some live Q&A.

Time	Activity
2pm	Welcome and introduction to the day - poll
2.10pm	Bringing the donor into the story: panel recording An egg donor (who also has DC children with her wife), a sperm donor from the 1980s and one of his donor conceived offspring, plus an embryo donor conceived adult share their thoughts and experiences.
3pm	Q&A - Our panellists join us live to answer questions.
3.15pm	Comfort break
3.30pm	Extended connections Presentation exploring the long term implications of openness
3.40pm	Ethnicity: choices, decision-making and relevance - panel recording Two parents share how ethnicity played a part in their donor conception journey.
4.10pm	Q&A
4.20pm	Comfort break
4.35pm	Why, when and how? Egg donors and their routes to donation Prof Nicky Hudson of De Montfort University will present findings from her research about egg donation in the UK, Spain and Belgium.
5.15pm	Q&A
5.25pm	Final thoughts and words

Booking queries: 020 7278 2608 or events@dcnetwork.org

Last minute queries on the day: 07503 567 212