

CAREERSADVICEforPARENTS creating better futures

When it comes to helping your youngster choose their career path, you obviously want to help them make the best choice so that they can be independent, secure, and have most fulfilling, successful and well-paid career possible. But the rules and routes to get in and get on in the new world of work are changing dramatically.

Introducing INSPIRED Teenager...

... award winning career coaching delivered in a course that helps parents, carers and teachers enable teenagers to create inspiring working lives in the new world of work. Created by Carolyn Parry, UK Career Coach of the Year 2017, the INSPIRED Teenager programme has been developed out of fifteen years' experience of working with university students, graduates, and professionals and designed to enable teenagers to achieve outstanding outcomes.

Direction & Goals

Using our unique and proven eight part framework (above), our trainers will demystify what's needed to succeed in the new world of work and take you and your teen will work through question led activities.

Answering these will help them discover their career purpose, mission and plan, and build their confidence and sense of direction.

Here's what others say about the INSPIRED Teenager programme:

CLIENT FEEDBACK

"I liked the questions because it made me think about my near and far future."

(14 year old)

"I realised that life isn't just about a job that gives me lots of money."

(15 year old)

"Really interesting to do this as mother/son. Gave me food for thought and things for us to discuss."
