

Sit, Sniff & Touch

Booking terms & conditions

Please ensure that you have read these terms and conditions, by making a booking you are agreeing to have read, understood and accepted them.

- Payment of the mantrailing intro or progression session must be paid for in advance
- Once booked you are accepting the responsibility for the full cost of the session you have booked. If you are unable to you are still liable for the full cost. No refunds will be given unless the space can be filled or sold.
- If the participant fails to attend the session no refund will be given.
- We accept Bacs or cash payments.
- We reserve the right to refuse a session and will return the fee should this happen.
- We reserve the right to cancel or change a session up to and including the date of the session. Individuals booked onto a cancelled session will be given the option to of a full refund or a reschedule for a future session date.
- We will not be liable for any losses or expenses arising from amendments to the course or cancellations.