LINE MANAGEMENT

for middle and senior leaders including difficult conversations

The workshop will be led by Sue Lightburn, a HR professional with over 20 years' experience in HR and the Education Sector. Sue currently works as an independent HR Consultant in the education sector, working with schools and Multi-Academy Trusts at strategic and operational levels to provide HR support.

As part of the Mead Institute's series of learning that focuses on HR within roles, this will include:

- The knowledge that will help you as a line manager
 - Line management skills
- Why and how to handle those difficult conversations we would all rather not have
 - Dealing with issues relating to employees in your team
 - Avoiding pitfalls and minimising the risk of legal challenge
