drb Learning are recognised as one of the leading providers of essential seminars for the UK's education community. Each seminar is designed to address key topics that are current, and that challenge schools and academies. Headteachers, Senior Leaders, Teachers and School Business Managers from a wide variety of settings have already benefitted from attending seminars.

Course leaders, both external and internal are especially chosen for their depth of knowledge and understanding of specific topics that will ensure you go back to your school ready to implement practical strategies that really do work.

Lunch will then follow after the meeting for those who want it. Please stipulate at the time of booking.
