

Acknowledgment of Risks, Medical and Consent Form

This is a program of relational exercises, nature connection games and activities.

- This event is covered by Public Liability Insurance
- The event is risk assessed with controls, while maintaining purposeful challenge.
- In the unlikely event of an accident or injury, Kevin Button will be responsible for harm caused by its staff, but not for harms caused by other parties, unless it arose from our actions or inactions.
- Participants are advised not to bring items of value, mobile phones, expensive jewelry, caffeine drinks and confectionery. If they do they will be taken and put in a secure, safe place and returned after the day session.
- Blades/ tools (we may be using knives in the context of bushcraft activities, if your child wishes to bring a knife, please hand it to a member of staff upon arrival) and drugs and alcohol are strictly prohibited.

High quality facilitation, including earth based crafts, Wilderness Survival Skills and lots of games!

Full registration document completion including medical details and parental consent is required in order for your young person to attend. Thank-you.

Camp booking, refund and cancellations:

- To book a place, we ask that parents/guardian pay to reserve a spot in advance through www.bookwhen.com
- If for any reason the camp must be canceled due to unforeseeable circumstances such as high winds amongst others, jeopardising the safety of the camp, either an alternative session/date where possible, or a full refund will be made.
- We cannot offer refunds if participants are unable to attend session(s) 2 weeks of the start date. However, we will endeavour to offer you space from our waiting list.

By completing the booking form you content to the following:

- I give consent for the booked named participant(s) to participate in the activities of the programme, under the supervision of BridgingNature and his staff.
- I agree that, if required, medical attention can be given by a trained first aider or medical professional, in accordance with relevant statute and guidelines.
- I acknowledge that should there be an emergency and it is not possible for me to give consent, it will be given by the lead instructor, who will sign any relevant documents.